

16 September 2011

Media release

Gold Coast decision provides clarity: Allconnex

Allconnex respects the right of the Gold Coast City Council to resolve the future of the provision of water services to its ratepayers, says Allconnex CEO Kim Wood.

"Today's decision to continue to opt-out of Allconnex provides clarity to Allconnex employees," said Mr Wood.

"We can now get on with the job of ensuring a smooth transition of water services back to council.

"I would like to acknowledge the professionalism of Allconnex employees who have worked through difficult circumstances for the past five months.

"No matter what organisation's name they have on their shirts, their trucks or payslips, they will continue to bring first-class water and wastewater services to the people of the Gold Coast.

"Allconnex employees have never stopped striving to improve services and bring savings through economies of scale and I thank them for that.

"Allconnex Water has established a transition team that is working on the hand-back of services."

Inquiries: Marnie Finster, Communication Strategist
p 5570 7192