

27 October 2010

Media Release

Date: 22 October

Water winners prizes presented

Allconnex Water celebrated National Water Week (17-23 October) with the presentation of prizes in a school art competition.

The Make Your Water Mark competition was offered to school students in the Gold Coast, Logan and Redlands areas.

Allconnex Water asked school students to design eye catching stickers, create motivating slogans and screensavers that would spread the Watersaver message.

Winners were:

Years P – 3 Design a sticker - Pare Tapsell, Harris Fields State School, runner-up Josh Punga, Harris Fields State School.

Years 4 – 7 Create a slogan - Claire Jakimoff, Jubilee Primary School, runner-up Bonnie Phillips, Jubilee Primary School

Years 4 – 12 Design a sticker - Philippa Finau, St. Paul's Primary School , and runner-up Taniesha Awai-Johnson, St Paul's Primary School.

Allconnex Water CEO Kim Wood congratulated the winners.

"Students obviously took the time to think about their water consumption and used their creativity to show how they would like to see the Watersaver message spread," he said.

On Friday (22 October) prizes will be presented at two schools, St Paul's Primary School, Woodridge, and Jubilee Primary School, Pacific Pines.

White Water World at Dreamworld, one of the Gold Coast district's most water efficient businesses, got behind the competition and provided family passes for the winning entries.

Winning entries can be viewed on the Allconnex Water website at www.allconnex.com.au ends